

Malaria Strategies

A MasterClass with Prof. Marcel Tanner

ISO 9001: 2015 certified

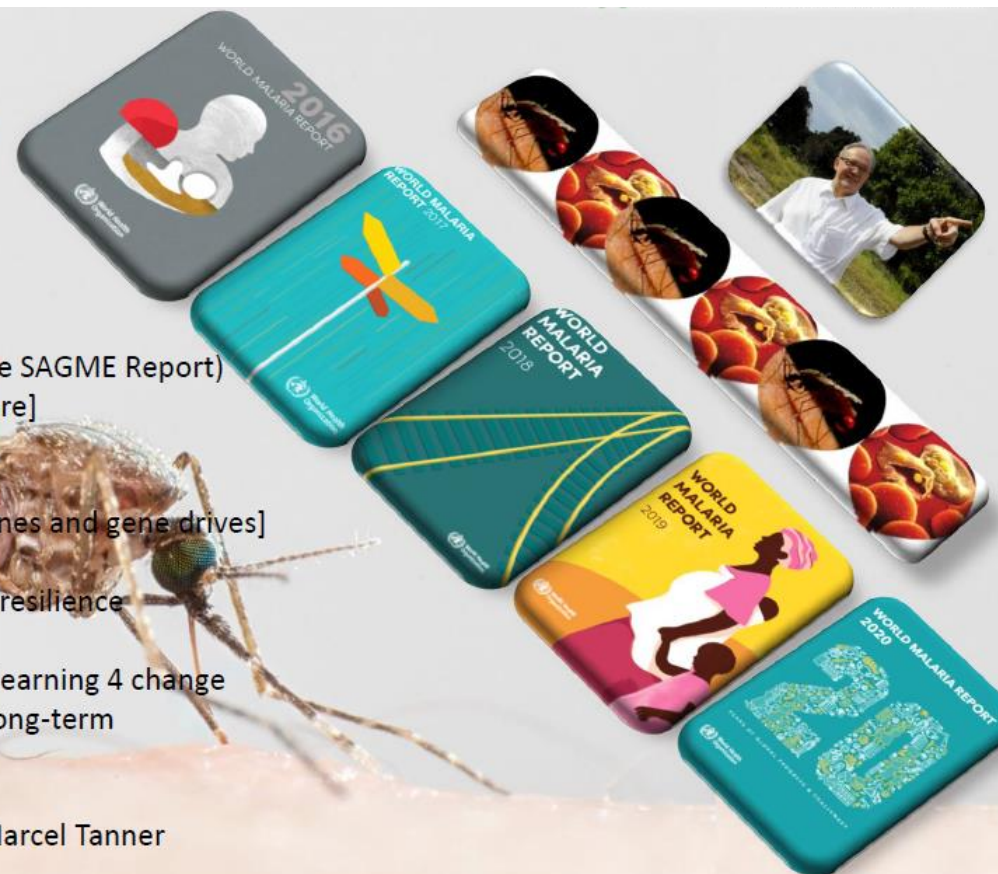

Ifakara MasterClasses in Public Health & Medical Entomology
Episode XXX: Thursday, August 12th 2021; Starting 2.00 pm EAT

Hosted by Fredros Okumu (Ifakara) & Sheila Ogoma (CHAI)

Key Topics:

1. Benefits, scenarios & feasibility of malaria eradication (behind the SAGME Report)
2. Global malaria strategies [from 2000 to 2021; and a little bit before]
3. The “Tomorrow of Malaria” [& key lessons from “its Yesterday”]
4. Transformative technologies for malaria control: [a case for vaccines and gene drives]
5. Evolution of surveillance-response initiatives for malaria
6. Health system needs [strengths & weaknesses] and the need for resilience
7. Essential partnerships for malaria control & elimination: Mutual learning 4 change
8. Careers in malaria control: developing essential capacity in the long-term
9. Key lessons in leadership for global health & malaria control
10. No Roots No Fruits: Personal reflections & experiences of Prof. Marcel Tanner

Register in advance for this meeting

Do so by clicking the link below:

<https://ternet-or-tz.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZltd-ugpzgtE9E11Un1nYxpCaJTUtNsxXTn>

“No Roots No Fruits” Prof. Marcel Tanner

More about Prof. Tanner:

<https://akademien-schweiz.ch/en/uber-uns/organisation/vorstand-und-delegierte/>

“Mutual Learning 4 Change” Prof. Tanner

More about Prof. Tanner:

<https://www.swisstph.ch/fr/staff/profile/people/marcel-tanner/>